committee," said Albert Dodge, grand secretary of the Good Templars, yesterday. "We shall let the contractor for the new building at Hackley park. Our auditors are getting memberships right along now, but even if they should be unsuccessful the building will be a sure thing, as four or five of us would put it through anyhow."

TEMPLARS OF TEMPERANCE.

Report of the Grand Council Head, Dr. Fair Initiated.

At the regular meeting of Valley City council, No. 12 Royal Templars of Temperance held last night, A. J. White, representative to the twelfth annual session of the Grand council, held at Louisville February 28 and March 1, gave a report of the proceedings of the council. The reports from the various councils in the state showed an increase in membership and the order to be in a prosperous condition. The Hon. L. R. Sanborn of Buffalo, N. Y., supreme councilor, and J. H. Tatum of this city, past supreme councilor, were present and addressed an open meeting in the Bell opera house in the evening of February 28.

At the meeting of the local council last night the Rev. Dr. Campbell Fair was initiated into the order. The doctor said he was a member of nearly all the beneficiary orders in the city, and being a total abstemious man he thought he ought to join the only total abstinence beneficiary order in the city to make himself consistent with his teachings.

The officers elected by the grand council are as follows: Grand councilor, O. H. Lau, M. D., Detroit; past grand councilor, H. L. Bower, M. D., Greenville; grand vice councilor, Mrs. A. M. Tucker, Detroit; grand chaplain, Miss Sarah E. Thompson, Marine City; grand secretary, L. D. Randall, Grand Rapids; grand treasurer, H. W. Randolph, Vernon; grand herald, F. E. Benton, Ponton; grand deputy herald, Josie M. Bishop, Battle Creek; grand guard, Mr. B. Knapp, Howell; grand sentinel, A. J. White, Grand Rapids; grand medical examiner, A. R. Ball, M. D., Corunna.

STATE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Local Committees Preparing to Receive Its Members.

A meeting of Epworth League committee which are preparing for the coming convention was held at the Division Street M. E. church last night. The report of the committee showed that all arrangements were being perfected and that an enthusiastic reception will be given all delegates. The programs were mailed yesterday to every chapter in the state and advices already received show that the number which will be in attendance may be estimated at 800 to 1,000. The "Epworth Endeavor," the local society paper, will be issued April 1 in a special edition for the occasion, containing full programs for the week. The next meeting to complete arrangements will be held March 20.

Mrs. Johnson's Statement.

In one of the drug stores yesterday, Mrs. Johnson, when asked why she bought so many diamond dyes, said: "Because they are easy to use, make old clothes look like new, and give handsome, unflattering colors. A 10-cent package has often saved me from buying a new dress for myself or daughter. They are just splendid."

Wants to Be Alderman.

Major Wm. A. Clark of 489 Jefferson avenue, at present chairman of the Eleventh Ward Republican committee, was a candidate for the nomination of alderman. He was born in Lima, Genesee county, N. Y., his forefathers having been soldiers in the revolutionary war. He first came to Michigan in 1856. The major enlisted in August, 1861, in the Third Michigan cavalry, and his first service was when he slept in the Eleventh ward on the ground in tents and barracks on the old fair grounds for three months, and from there he went to St. Louis, Mo., and was four years in the third Michigan cavalry. Three months of that time he was spy and scout for Gen. Phil H. Sheridan, was two years in the 117th S. C. T. on the Rio Grande river, having been in thirty-two battles and the longest in the active volunteer service of any man in the United States; was twenty-four years in business since the war, and had to quit business some two years ago on account of ill health, and now seeks the nomination of alderman, as he has abundance of time to attend to the office, having been a resident of the ward six years and of the city seventeen years.
